

Dominique

NAME: Dominique called Dom

AGE: 9

SEX: Girl

ADDRESS : She lives in Faulx-les Tombes, in a big house with garden near the village church. Behind the garden there are woods and fields where is living a dragon.

FAMILY: Dom's father worked for the European Union in Brussels and her mom in the municipal administration. Dom has a little sister and a little brother. Les parents de Dom veulent qu'elle travaille beaucoup pour l'école mais elle, elle préfère aller courir dans les bois avec son chien dès qu'elle a fait le minimum qu'il faut faire pour être en ordre. She thinks It is more comfortable with pants because often she plays with the boys at school because she likes football and runing.

APPEARANCE: She is slim and tall for her age. She has short curly hair. They are black like her Italian grandmother. In 1923, the father of her grandmother arrived in Belgium to work in the mines of Charleroi.

CHARACTERIZATION:

She does not like to talk about anything so she does not speak often. She loves to read, write, draw and paint. She loves nature, animals and feels good lying in the grass or in the branches of a tree. She can spend hours watching the clouds go by.

At school she asks questions sometimes disturbing for teachers: Why it is learned,? Why is it necessary to think like that?

She stings angers easily when you don't understand what she means.

While she is often with the boys, as she is very nice and she explains things well when someone needs help, even the girls like her.

She loves gymnastics at school, but she doesn't like competitive sports.